

Saafa

- a traditional turban that is worn by Indian men to weddings, a saafa is essentially a long piece of cloth. Sometimes, the groom's saafa also includes an ornament.

WASTE LESS

Odhni

- a long scarf worn over the head by women, an odhni (also called chunar) is traditional Rajasthani attire that is usually made of lightweight fabric, and acts as a very short veil.

GET CREATIVE

Kurta

- a shirt that reaches the knees, a kurta is often paired with cotton pants, and is worn by boys and men.

REPURPOSE

Gudiya

- dolls have always served as precious companions to little children, often just for them to play make-believe with, and sometimes to serve as a comforting presence when they're lonely or sad. They can be made of clay, wood, plastic, or even cloth, like the doll Rupa Ram makes for his daughter!

UPCYCLE

Gulaab

- known world over for being a symbol of beauty and romance, the rose is meant to represent promise, hope and new beginnings. It is also used for decorative and ornamental purposes in houses (the way Rupa Ram and his family use their gulaab), at weddings, and sometimes even in places of worship.
